GRAND JURY APPROVES DONORA-ELDORA ROAD

Three-Mile Stretch of Important Highway to be Bricked

CITIZENS ARGUE NEED

Donora and Charleroi Business Men Present to Give Their Testimony

Before being discharged Wednesday the grand jury approved the plan for the construction of a brick road leading from Donora to Eldora. The portion of road which is proposed to be improved is three miles in length. Its cost will approximate $73,000. A petition had been circulated sometime ago before election and was largely signed by citizens of Donora, Carroll township, Charleroi and Monongahela.

Twelve of Donora's leading citizens appeared before the grand jury Wednesday and set forth at length the necessity for the improvement of the highway. John B. Schafer, president of the Charleroi Business Men's Association, W. R. Gaut and J. J. Holt, of the road committee of the association were also before the grand jury. It was the consensus of opinion among those who testified as to the need of the road that an outlet for the thriving steel town was absolutely necessary and that the proposed road would benefit many of the taxpayers of the county.

MONONGAHELA EAGLES HOLD CELEBRATION

One hundred members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles helped Monongahela Aerie No. 532, to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the institution of that aerie at Monongahela Tuesday night. H. B. Hayden acted as the toastmaster. Grand District Deputy Sharrer of Braddock, brought a message from Grand Worthy President W. J. Brennan, of Pittsburgh, expressing that gentleman's regret that pressing business kept him from being present to deliver an address.

George Newton, Patrick Acton and Louis Brusa, all of Charleroi and J. Criswell of Allegheny, all made addresses which were pertinent to the occasion and which were much enjoyed. Mr. Newton spoke chiefly on the principles of the order, concluding with the statement that to be a genuine Eagle, following out the teachings of the order, was to be a good citizen, that the good citizen was one who does as he would be done by.

Toastmaster Hayden reviewed the history of the Eagles and found much to commend. John Hodgson of Monongahela, gave a short talk in which he stated the banquet to be one of the greatest he had ever attended in Monongahela, a city noted for the many good fellows who live there and who know how to entertain in the most pleasing manner.

Sid C. Wilson, editor of the New Eagle News gave several excellent violin exercises accompanied by Prof. Henius on the piano. The Band

Population On Increase

District Shows Gain of Two to One Comparing Births
With Deaths

During the last two months the population in the district of which Dr. Edwin McKay is the registrar increased two to one in proportion to the number of deaths. In the months of September and October there were 52 births and 25 deaths. During September in the district there were 24 births and 16 deaths. Of these 20 of the births were in Charleroi borough and four in Fallowfield township. Fifteen deaths were in the borough and one in the township. Of the total of 38 births there were 26 in Charleroi and two in Fallowfield; of the deaths there were eight in the borough and one in Fallowfield.

CHILD'S DEATH PROBED

Donora Woman is Held in Connection With Drowning of Girl

WITNESSES TESTIFY

After hearing at Donora the evidence of several witnesses the jury empaneled by Coroner James Heffran Wednesday night held Mrs. Catherine Sampo of that place responsible for the death of her 4-months-old daughter, who was found dead in the Sampo home Monday night by the father, Steve Sampo. It was found that the child came to its death by drowning, the presumption being that the mother had placed the little one in a wash boiler filled with soap suds.

The jury in its finding recommended that Mrs. Sampo be taken at once to the Washington county jail and a commission be appointed to inquire into her sanity, it being believed she is suffering from mental derangement.

The woman has been held at the lockup. She refuses to talk or eat. Her condition is considered serious. She will be taken to the jail today.

quartet of Pittsburgh rendered vocal selections of high character. At the conclusion of the banquet, Toastmaster Hayden stated that enough good things had been furnished to feed a regiment and that tomorrow Monongahela's needy would be looked after.

WORK PROGRESSING ON IMMENSE PLANT

Cheat River Power Dam to be Wonderful Affair--Ten Millions to be Spent in the Developments

Work on the construction of the dam and power house at Cheat Haven, on the Cheat river to augment the immense West Penn Traction and Water Power company plants of J. S. and W. S. Kuhn, of Pittsburg, is progressing well. About half of the river has been enclosed in a coffer dam and rapid progress is now being made inside this coffer dam. In a short time the contractors will be ready to lay concrete and this part of the work will go very rapidly when once started. Gangs of men are working day and night. A number of office buildings and dwellings have been erected on the hillside near the scene of the work, making quite a flourishing village. A railroad line is being extended into the vicinity from the B. & O. tracks.

The dam proper will be 100 feet high from the bed rock and over 1,000 feet long and 85 feet above low water mark. It will back up enough water to form a pond nine miles long and three-fourths of a mile wide, covering about 7,000 acres of ground. The power house will be virtually a part of the big dam. With the new power house into use and a dam which is to be built at Beaver Hole, further up the Cheat, the West Penn will have an installation of 150,000 horse power. The West Penn now has a capacity of 50,000 horse power developed by steam generators. The entire work of harnessing the Cheat river will represent an expenditure of $10,000,000 when complete.

Power for an immense territory will be furnished by the West Penn Electric company. It will supply power and light to more than 110 cities and boroughs in Western Pennsylvania, having over a total of 285 miles of high tension. The West Penn lines now have steam plants at Connellsville, Wheeling, Washington, Creighton, Butler and Kittanning.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Postmaster General Hitchcock Tells How to Mail Packages

Postoffice General Hitchcock has issued a warning to those sending Christmas presents through the mails as well as those who expect to use the parcels post soon to be instituted, to be very careful that addresses are plain and definite so that delivery may be made. He cautions that it would be well for the packages to be plainly marked with the name of the sender as well as the person to whom it is sent so that if the party for whom it is intended cannot be found the sender may be notified to that effect.

Packages not plainly addressed and not containing the name and address of the sender must be sent to the dead letter office so they find their way to the annual sale of unclaimed articles. The postoffice department announces that 8,566 such articles will be sold at the annual auction which takes place December 16, 1912. The value of these articles is estimated to be $13,000.

The local postoffice announces that it would not only facilitate prompt delivery of packages but would insure against possible loss of presents intended for friends or others, if the senders would take pains to address the packages plainly. Poorly addressed mail matter requires valuable time to decipher and prompt delivery, and in the heavy mails of Christmas this delay amounts to considerable.

HENRY BENTZ DIES A VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Henry Bentz, aged 36, a former well known resident of Charleroi died at the Mercy Hospital, at Pittsburg, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after suffering for some time of pneumonia. Mr. Bentz was removed to the hospital from Newell, where he had been employed. He had been ailing for the last year, but only during the last few weeks had he been seriously ill.

Funeral services will be conducted at St. Jerome's Catholic church here Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery. Tonight Charleroi Aerie, No. 390, Fraternal Order of Eagles will hold services at the M. T. Crowley chapel, where the body was brought Wednesday night.

Mr. Bentz came to Charleroi about 12 years ago and took employment as a bottle blower at a local factory. He had been in Newell for a little more than a year.

MARRIED TODAY AT FORD CITY

Miss Frances Estenfelder Becomes Bride of A. A. McDonald This Afternoon

This afternoon at 3 o'clock at Ford City at the rectory of the Episcopal minister there the nuptials will be said uniting in holy wedlock Miss Frances Eva Estenfelder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Estenfelder of Charleroi to Andrew A. McDonald a prominent young mining engineer of Monongahela. The couple will be attended by Miss Tena Estenfelder, a sister of the bride, and Frank McNutt of Ford City. They will return tonight or tomorrow to Monongahela where they will live.

The bride and groom are popular young folks in this community. They met at Monongahela in the house in which they are to live about a year ago. At that time the bride of today was employed at the Townner store at Monongahela as bookkeeper and cashier. Friendship ripened into a fonder regard with the wedding the final culmination.

Mr. McDonald is a prominent young mining engineer having in charge the mining engineering work at the various mines of the Pigeon Creek valley of the Westmoreland Coal and Coke company. He is the son of a prominent East End, Pittsburg attorney.

WONT HAVE TO GO VERY FAR TO FIND DEER

That hunters need not go far away from home to hunt deer is indicated by the fact that recently game of that species was seen in Fayette county not far away from the Monongahela river. Christian Deaterly of Charleroi, who owns a farm back of Fayette City, states that the man who is working the land for him saw a male deer a few days ago on the farm. It disappeared shortly. The deer had evidently come from the mountains which are not many miles distant from there. It is stated that in the mountains not far from Fairchance deer are to be found in numbers.

Big Feature at the Palace. "The Mills of the Gods," a feature Vitagraph film in three reels, will be presented at the Palace Theatre tonight. This is one of the most intensely dramatic and thrilling motion pictures ever produced. It is the story of crime, a double life and a woman's unrelenting vengeance. The scenes are laid in Milan, Italy, and it is romantic, thrilling and sensational to the highest degree.

LOST--Silk flag. If found return to Elk's club and receive reward. 97-t2

Month $666

County Treasurer Downer
Makes Report of Financial Affairs

Samuel Downer, county treasurer, reports the interest on county funds for the month of October to total $666.78. This brings the total interest received on county funds for the past ten months up to $7,171.15. Before the year closes it is expected the interest on county funds for the year will run near to $10,000. This will be a record in the county in this matter. The following shows the amounts in the different funds at the beginning of the month: Road improvement, $215,903.69; bonded debt, $143,088.44; general purposes, $97,975.42; dog fund, $3,786.43 and state fund, $1,172.22.

MATTHEWS LEADER IN LAWRENCE

Congressman Got Home
County But That is
All in District

BEAVER FOR TEMPLE

The official count of the votes cast at the last election in Lawrence and Beaver counties which with Washington compose the 24th congressional district has been completed. The result shows that Matthews carried Lawrence county over Henry W. Temple for congress, by a plurality of 791 votes. In Beaver county Temple had a plurality over Matthews of 152 making the plurality of Matthews in the two counties only 639. It is likely that the plurality of Temple in this county will give him the district by over 700 plurality.

In Lawrence county one progressive Dr. Bittles and one Republican, W. D. Walton, won out for assembly. In Beaver county George Baldwin, of the Washington, Keystone and Prohibition tickets, led the field. Dr. C. F. Swift, Washington party candidate, was second with a plurality of but 17 votes over Denton, the highest Republican candidate.

One of the surprises in Lawrence county was the vote of Peoples, the prohibition candidate for congress, who had more votes than Dr. Lacock, the Democratic candidate. His vote was 1,500, as against 1,316 cast for Lacock.

Joe Thompson, the Pitt football coach, won out for state senate, but lost his own county of Beaver to the Washington party candidate, Moulthrop, by 34 votes. He has several hundred plurality in Lawrence county.

Roosevelt carried both counties for

Trouble Frenzied Tabulation Instead of Frenzied Voting

TESTIMONY IS TAKEN

Election Board Members
Make Statements--Official
Re-Count Reveals Mistake

The official return board of Washington county rather than the election board of the Second precinct of the Second ward of Monongahela is guilty of frenzied counting of ballots cast at the recent election. Matters were cleared up practically on Wednesday when the return board from Monongahela appeared before the official tabulators at Washington.

Testimony got them nowhere apparently, and the county official board took a notion to recount the ballots. The result was that their tabulation of the second precinct showed 320 ballots cast instead of 351, the number declared to have been cast by their previous count. After figuring around considerably they reached the conclusion that they had counted the 31 Socialist votes twice.

The return to the court was to the effect that while there may have been some errors in the tabulation of the Monongahela board election night, they were not serious enough to demand the throwing out of the entire vote of that precinct. Votes of which there is no question as to the intent, will be counted.

TIRED WANDERERS CARED FOR AT THE POLICE STATION

Eventually perhaps that class which toils not and spins not will learn that Charleroi is a good place to stay away from, but the time is not yet. Chief of Police Albright entertained two tired wanderers along the weary pathway at the lockup Wednesday night, one of them crippled in the arm, and the other--well, his chief recommendation to society consisted in his ability to find ginseng and saffras in the mountains.

The man with the crippled arm like most of the classification felt ready to weep through sympathy with himself.

He was hunting the county home, he said, taking town by town. Chief of Police Albright told him that at his rate of travel he would probably reach his destination in time to attend his own funeral party. The ginseng artist was from West Virginia, and admitted it, likewise with some sorrow. Both were sent on their way.

president. In Beaver county his vote was 3,658; that of Taft, 2,759; Wilson 3,037; Debs, 1,748; Chafin, 464. The Socialist vote in Beaver county was about 300 less than it was in the county election one year ago.

The vote for president in Lawrence county was: Roosevelt, 3,348; Taft, 2,123; Wilson, 1,976; Debs, 1,641; Chafin, 749.

Miss Florence Montgomery of Fayette City is visiting friends here today.

MUCH INTEREST IN COMING FRAY AT FORBES FIELD

The W. & J. football team of Washington which is to play Pitt at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, Saturday, has practically a new team this year although it is made up largely of experienced performers. They have a line which is equal in weight to the Pitt line and the backfield is considerably heavier than Pitt's. In Quarterback Goodwin they have one of the best field generals and kickers in college ranks. Their captain is Alexander, a former Lafayette College star.

Pittsburgh only has four of last year's players on the team--Captain Galvin, Wagner, W. B. Smith and Leahy. The other seven players who will fight for the Blue and Gold in this game will be chosen from the fine lot of prep. school talent which came in this year. Reese of Bellefonte Academy and Joyce of Pittsburgh Academy are playing the end well. They are both freshmen. Pratt, a 215 pound giant from Pittsburgh High School, who was a member of the scrub team last year and Hoag, who has had a year's experience on the Penn Freshman team are the tacklers.

Smith and Leahy, of the 1911 varsity, are the guards and Captain Galvin looks after center. Galvin has been on the hospital list since the Carlisle Indian game, but it is reported that he will be entirely sound for W. & J. This is his last year on the varsity, as he graduates in June. He will be the only varsity man missing next year. Thompson has developed Shell into a dependable quarterback. The other backfield positions will be filled by Ward, Corboy, Wagner, Kernohan, McElroy, Ezbert or Dillon.

WORK PROGRESSING ON IMMENSE PLANT

Cheat River Power Dam to be Wonderful Affair--Ten Millions to be Spent in the Developments

Work on the construction of the dam and power house at Cheat Haven on the Cheat river to augment the immense West Penn Traction and Water Power company plants of J. S. and W. S. It will back up enough water to form a pond nine miles long and three-fourths of a mile wide, covering about 7,000 acres of ground. The power house will be virtually a part of the big dam. With the new power house into use and a dam which is to be built at Beaver Hole, further up the Cheat the West Penn will have an installation of 150,000 horse power. The West Penn now has a capacity of 50,000 horse power developed by steam generators. The entire work of harnessing the Cheat river will represent an expenditure of $10,000,000 when complete. Power for an immense territory will be furnished by the West Penn Electric company. It will supply power and light to more than 110 cities and boroughs in Western Pennsylvania, having over a total of 285 miles of high tension. The West Penn lines now have steam plants at Connellsville, Wheeling, Washington, Creighton, Butler and Kittanning.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Postmaster General Hitchcock Tells How to Mail Packages

Postoffice General Hitchcock has issued a warning to those sending Christmas presents through the mails as well as those who expect to use the parcels post soon to be instituted, to be very careful that addresses are plain and definite so that delivery may be made. He cautions that it would be well for the packages to be plainly marked with the name of the sender as well as the person to whom it is sent so that if the party for whom it is intended cannot be found the sender may be notified to that effect.

Packages not plainly addressed and not containing the name and address of the sender must be sent to the dead letter office so they find their way to the annual sale of unclaimed articles. The postoffice department announces that 8,556 such articles will be sold at the annual auction which takes place December 16, 1912. The value of these articles is estimated to be $13,000.

The local postoffice announces that it would not only facilitate prompt delivery of packages but would insure against possible loss of presents intended for friends or others, if the senders would take pains to address the packages plainly. Poorly addressed mail matter requires valuable time to decipher and prompt delivery, and in the heavy mails of Christmas this delay amounts to considerable.

HENRY BENTZ DIES A VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Henry Bentz, aged 36, a former well known resident of Charleroi died at the Mercy Hospital, at Pittsburgh, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after suffering for some time of pneumonia. Mr. Bentz was removed to the hospital from Newell, where he had been employed. He had been ailing for the last year, but only during the last few weeks had he been seriously ill.

Funeral services will be conducted at St. Jerome's Catholic church here Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery, Tonight Charleroi Aerie, No. 390.

Fraternal Order of Eagles will hold services at the M. T. Crowley chapel, where the body was brought Wednesday night.

Mr. Bentz came to Charleroi about 12 years ago and took employment as a bottle blower at a local factory. He had been in Newell for a little more than a year.

MARRIED TODAY AT FORD CITY

Miss Frances Estenfelder Becomes Bride of A. A. McDonald This Afternoon

This afternoon at 3 o'clock at Ford City at the rectory of the Episcopal minister there the nuptials will be said uniting in holy wedlock Miss Frances Eva Estenfelder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Estenfelder of Charleroi to Andrew A. McDonald a prominent young mining engineer of Monongahela. The couple will be attended by Miss Tena Estenfelder, a sister of the bride, and Frank McNutt of Ford City. They will return tonight or tomorrow to Monongahela where they will live.

The bride and groom are popular young folks in this community. They met at Monongahela in the house in which they are to live about a year ago. At that time the bride of today was employed at the Towner store at Monongahela as bookkeeper and cashier. Friendship ripened into a fonder regard with the wedding the final culmination.

Mr. McDonald is a prominent young mining engineer having in charge the mining engineering work at the various mines of the Pigeon Creek valley of the Westmoreland Coal and Coke company. He is the son of a prominent East End, Pittsburgh attorney.

WONT HAVE TO GO VERY FAR TO FIND DEER

That hunters need not go far away from home to hunt deer is indicated by the fact that recently game of that species was seen in Fayette county not far away from the Monongahela river. Christian Deaterly of Charleroi, who owns a farm back of Fayette City, states that the man who is working the land for him saw a male deer a few days ago on the farm. It disappeared shortly. The deer had evidently come from the mountains which are not many miles distant from there. It is stated that in the mountains not far from Fairchance deer are to be found in numbers.

Big Feature at the Palace. "The Mills of the Gods," a feature Vitagraph film in three reels, will be presented at the Palace Theatre tonight. This is one of the most intensely dramatic and thrilling motion pictures again produced. It is the story of crime, a double life and a woman's unrelenting vengeance. The scenes are laid in Milan, Italy, and it is romantic, thrilling and sensational to the highest degree.

County Treasurer Downer
Makes Report of Financial Affairs

Samuel Downer, county treasurer, reports the interest on county funds for the month of October to total $666.78. This brings the total interest received on county funds for the past ten months up to $7,171.15. Before the year closes it is expected the interest on county funds for the year will run near to $10,000. This will be a record in the county in this matter. The following shows the amounts in the different funds at the beginning of the month: Road improvement, $215,908.89; bonded debt, $143,088.44; general purposes, $97,975.42; dog fund, $8,786.43 and state fund, $1,172.22.

BEAVER FOR TEMPLE

The official count of the votes cast at the last election in Lawrence and Beaver counties which with Washington compose the 24th congressional district has been completed. The result shows that Matthews carried Lawrence county over Henry W. Temple for congress, by a plurality of 701 votes. In Beaver county Temple had a plurality over Matthews of 182 making the plurality of Matthews in the two counties only 639. It is likely that the plurality of Temple in this county will give him the district by over 700 plurality.

In Lawrence county one progressive Dr. Bittles and one Republican, W. D. Walton, won out for assembly. In Beaver county George Baldwin, of the Washington, Keystone and Prohibition tickets, led the field. Dr. C. F. Swift, Washington party candidate, was second with a plurality of but 17 votes over Denton, the highest Republican candidate.

One of the surprises in Lawrence county was the vote of Peoples, the Prohibition candidate for congress, who had more votes than Dr. Lacock, the Democratic candidate. His vote was 1,560, as against 1,316 cast for Lacock.

Joe Thompson, the Pitt football coach, won out for state senate, but lost his own county of Beaver to the Washington party candidate, Moulthrop, by 34 votes. He has several hundred plurality in Lawrence county.

TESTIMONY IS TAKEN

Election Board Members
Make Statements--Official
Re-Count Reveals Mistake

The official return board of Washington county rather than the election board of the Second precinct of the Second ward of Monongahela is guilty of frenzied counting of ballots cast at the recent election. Matters were cleared up practically on Wednesday when the return board from Monongahela appeared before the official tabulators at Washington.

Testimony got them nowhere apparently, and the county official board took a notion to recount the ballots. The result was that their tabulation of the second precinct showed 320 ballots cast instead of 351, the number declared to have been cast by their previous count. After figuring around considerably they reached the conclusion that they had counted the 31 Socialist votes twice.

The return to the court was to the effect that while there may have been some errors in the tabulation of the Monongahela board election night, they were not serious enough to demand the throwing out of the entire vote of that precinct. Votes of which there is no question as to the intent, will be counted.

TIRED WANDERERS CARED FOR AT THE POLICE STATION

Eventually perhaps that class which toils not and spins not will learn that Charleroi is a good place to stay away from, but the time is not yet. Chief of Police Albright entertained two tired wanderers along the weary pathway at the lockup Wednesday night, one of them crippled in the arm, and the other--well, his chief recommendation to society consisted in his ability to find ginseng and sasparilla in the mountains.

The man with the crippled arm like most of the classification felt ready to weep through sympathy with himself. He was hunting the county home, he said, taking town by town. Chief of Police Albright told him that at his rate of travel he would probably reach his destination in time to attend his own funeral party. The ginseng artist was from West Virginia, and admitted it, likewise with some sorrow. Both were sent on their way.

president. In Beaver county his vote was 3,658; that of Taft, 2,759; Wilson, 3,037; Debs, 1,748; Chafin, 464. The Socialist vote in Beaver county was about 300 less than it was in the county election one year ago.

The vote for president in Lawrence county was: Roosevelt, 3,348; Taft, 2,128; Wilson, 1,976; Debs, 1,641; Chafin, 749.

THE FRIENDLESS SPIDER.

He's a Pretty Good Insect in Spite of His Looks and His Web.

Aside from spiders, there is probably no other kind of friendship with so little hope as the spider. Yet when the spider is fairly brought to trial it is rather hard to prove anything against him except his appearance and a few cobwebs.

Apur from furnishing an example of industry and patience from which we might well profit, the spider feeds exclusively upon freshly killed insects, all of them being of the kind denounced by sanitary authorities, the house fly being its favorite quarry.

As the actual destruction of a few hundred houseflies means that several hundred thousand that would otherwise have spent gay lives in transmitting typhoid and other diseases will not come into existence and as almost any spider should be able to account for as many as 300 in the course of a summer, to say nothing of stray mosquitoes and black gnats, we surely owe him something more than a flap with a slipper when we happen to catch him out of his hole.

A spider can bite, of course, but he seldom does except in self defense, and even then the bite is not much worse than would have been received from any one of the several hundred mosquitoes he has probably dined upon or will, if let alone. In the light of present scientific knowledge the story of the spider and the fly that was lured into the pretty parlor does not cause such a surge of sympathy for the fly as it once did—Harper's Weekly.

SHE LIKED TO BORROW.

Give Her a Fair Chance, Too, and She Was Willing to Pay Back.

Day by day as Mrs. Worth's household and kitchen furniture and groceries slowly disappeared she saw that the moment approached when a final stand must be made. One morning when Jimmy, son of the borrower, appeared at the back door with the statement, "Ma wants the wash boiler," Mrs. Worth determined to act.

"You tell your ma that when she brings back what she has already borrowed I will lend her the boiler."

In a little while Jimmy reappeared. "Ma wants to know what she has borrowed."

"There are a quart of beer," began Mrs. Worth, "a peck of potatoes, a cupful of sugar, a can of coffee, a half pound of lard, some onions and butter and spices, the screwdriver, the hatchet, a pair of scissors," she paused, recollecting—"three spools of thread, a paper of needles and—"

But Jimmy was gone. Presently he rapped on the back door again.

"Ma says for you to write 'em down I forgot some of 'em."

Mrs. Worth sat down with pencil and patiently made an alphabetical list of all the articles she could remember. Jimmy took the list and disappeared. A half hour later he once more appeared at the back door and announced: "Ma says if you'll lend her the wash boiler to carry them in she'll bring 'em home."—Youth's Companion.

Geographies to Blame.

Ask any hundred English men, women or children what is the name of the capital of Russia and every one of them will reply, "St. Petersburg." It may be a small matter, but in point of fact the proper name is "Peterburg." The English are the only folk who insist upon the "Saint." The city was founded by Peter the Great and is named after him. It is quite true that Peter was one of the most extraordinary men that ever filled a throne, but no one would have been more astounded than himself at being dubbed a saint. He neither lived nor died in the odor of sanctity, and it is hard to find out how it became the English fashion to mislabel the splendid town he founded.—London Mail.

What It Cost.

In a little town in England not long ago the entire family had been at church and the young minister was coming home to dine with them. While at dinner they were discussing the new stained glass window a member had given. "It is a most beautiful piece of workmanship," said one, "and must have cost a great deal of money." "Do you have any idea how much?" "I really do not," replied the minister, "but far into the hundreds, I should imagine." "No, it didn't," said little Harold. "I know how much it was. It cost 14s. 10d." "Why, Harold, how do you know anything about it?" "Because, mamma, it says at the bottom of the window, 'Job 14, 10.'"—London Globe.

Home Piety.

YOUR AMBITION.

Have You a Clear Cut Idea of the Object of Your Desire?

Several years ago, when I filled a position which brought me many requests each day and many more letters at the same time, I was overburdened with requests for advice from persons who wished "to succeed," "to accomplish," "to attain." But, as strange as the statement may seem to you, I can truthfully say that not one in a hundred of these earnest seekers was able to state exactly what he or she really wanted.

They were dissatisfied and discontented and felt the vague urge of unrest pushing them forward to further endeavor and attainment, but it stopped right there. Ninety-nine out of every hundred did not know what they wanted. They asked not only for advice regarding the means of accomplishment and attainment, but also for information as to what they should really desire.

"Silly," you exclaim. Not a bit of it. I venture to say that you—yes, you who are now reading these lines—are not much better off regarding clear cut ideas and ideals. You want and want and want, of course, but just what do you want? Have you a clearly defined idea and a clear cut ideal of the object of your desire? Honor bright now, have you?—William Walker Atkinson in Nautlius.

EIGHTEENTH CENTURY LIFE.

A Bath Was a Matter of Some Moment in Those Days.

These brief extracts from the letters of Elizabeth Montagu, the "queen of the bluestockings," throws a curious light on eighteenth century life in England. She was suffering from a swollen lip. Promptly the great Dr. Mead prescribed a blister to her back. She writes:

"I am better than I was; but, my mouth not being yet perfectly reduced, I have got a fresh blister upon my back. Well, may I bend with such a weight of calamities. I have sent for my bathing cloathes and on Sunday night shall take a souze. I think it a pleasant remedy."

Apparently in 1741 a lady could not take a bath even on Sunday night and in the privacy of her chamber without her "bathing cloathes."

Mrs. Montagu writes again: "My lip is not entirely reduced, though I have been blistered twice, once bled and have five times taken physic, have lived upon chicken and white meats and drunk nothing but water. I have suffered great disappointment about the warm bath which I am advised to try, for the bathing tubs are so out of order that we have not yet been able to make them hold water."—Westminster Gazette.

The Smelt.

It is the opinion of the true gourmet that of all marine pan fish there is none to compare with the smelt (Osmerus mordax). This primary rank is its own by reason of its delicacy and delicious flavor, and when fried a light brown in very fine breadcrumbs and served with melted butter there is none that disputes its pre-eminence. Its delightful flavor, however, as well as its peculiar odor, is evanescent. Like the mackerel, it cannot be too fresh. It is from its odor that the smelt derives not only its familiar but Latin name, an odor so aggressive of sliced cucumbers that if its presence be manifested only to the sense of smell people are often deluded into such supposition. This odor is not marked except in the freshly caught fish and disappears in the cooking, giving place, however, to a fitting resurrection of the smelt to an olfactory sense still more savory and delightful.

The Struggles of a Sculptor.

Auguste Rodin, the French sculptor, had a great struggle with poverty and adverse criticism in his youth. Of an episode of this early period a writer says: "With that inflexible will and singleness of purpose that never failed him throughout his career the young sculptor set himself to express in clay, marble or bronze his conception of life and art. He used his leisure in working at nighttime in a deserted studio he had transformed into a studio at his wonderful work of 'The Man With the Broken Nose.' After eighteen months of hard and patient labor he finished this work and sent it to the salon. It took the hanging committee fourteen years to discover any merit in the work, for it was rejected in 1874 and finally accepted only in 1878."

Literary Coincidence.

Resemblance does not always mean plagiarism. There was no plagiarism certainly in Newman's line, "The night is dark, and I am far from home," though it has been pointed out that it almost exactly reproduces a line in a play printed in 1500. This play is "Two Angry Women of Abington," by Henry Porter, and the original Hue runs, "Tis late and dark, and I am far from home."

The Hallmark.

"Isn't that Marjorie Mincer, the sou-brette star?"

"Yes."

"But she hasn't a particle of make-up on her face."

"She doesn't wear paint and powder on the street any more for fear she might be mistaken for a society leader."—Life.

Read About These Three Girls. How Sick They Were and How Their Health Was Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Appleton, Wis.—"I take pleasure in writing you an account of my sickness. I told a friend of mine how I felt and she said I had female trouble and advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as she had taken it herself for the same trouble with wonderful results. I had been sick for two years and overworked myself, and had such bad feelings every month that I could hardly walk for pain. I was very nervous and easily tired out and could not sleep nights. I had dizzy spells, and pimples came on my face. But I have taken your Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored my health. I think it is the best medicine in existence."—Miss CECILIA M. BAUER, 1161 Lawrence St., Appleton, Wis.

A SCHOOL TEACHER'S GRATITUDE:

Genoa, Iowa.—"I have been teaching school for some years and I have neglected my health because I was too busy with my work to attend to myself properly. I suffered greatly every month and was on the verge of a nervous breakdown. I wrote to you about my condition and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Blood Purifier as you recommended. These remedies have done wonders for me and I can highly and widely recommend them to every suffering woman."—Miss MARY SEAYER, R. F. D. No. 1, Genoa, Iowa, c/o Sam Erickson.

A COLORADO GIRL'S CASE:

Montrose, Col.—"I was troubled very much with irregular periods. Sometimes two months would elapse. I suffered severe headache, was weak and nervous, could eat scarcely anything. I took both Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and the result was wonderful. I feel like another person. I think your remedies are the best on earth and cannot express my thankfulness to you for what they have done to me. I help my neighbors when they are sick, and I shall always recommend your medicines."—Miss ELIA McCANDLESS, Montrose, Col.

Is it not reasonable to suppose that a medicine that did so much for these girls will benefit any other girl who is suffering with the same troubles?

Does it not seem the only sensible thing to give such a medicine at least a trial? You may be sure that it can do you no harm, and there are lots of proof that it will do you much good.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MUCH INTEREST

IN COMING FRAY AT FORBES FIELD

The W. & J. football team of Washington which is to play Pitt at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, Saturday, has practically a new team this year although it is made up largely of experienced performers. They have a line which is equal in weight to the Pitt line and the backfield is considerably heavier than Pitt's. In Quarterback Goodwin they have one of the best field generals and kickers in college ranks. Their captain is Alexander, a former Lafayette College star. Pittsburgh only has four of last year's players on the team—Captain Galvin, Wagner, W. E. Smith and Leahy. The other seven players who will fight for the Blue and Gold in this game will be chosen from the fine lot of prep. school talent which came in this year. Reese of Bellefonte Academy and Joyce of Pittsburgh Academy are playing the ends well. They are both freshmen. Pratt, a 215 pound giant from Pittsburgh High School, who was a member of the scrub team last year and Hoag, who has had a year's experience on the Penn Freshman team are the tacklers.

Smith and Leahy, of the 1911 varsity, are the guards and Captain Galvin looks after center. Galvin has been on the hospital list since the Carlisle Indian game, but it is reported that he will be entirely sound for W. & J. This is his last year on the varsity, as he graduates in June. He will be the only varsity man missing next year. Thompson has developed Shoff into a dependable quarterback. The other backfield positions will be filled by Ward, Corboy, Wagner, Kernohan, McElroy, Egbert or Dillon.
